- 7002 20 Oct 1903, a rare registered T.P.O. mail from Hankow to Turkey riding on Russian Train P.O. no.262 and no.266. 20 Oct 1903, a registered postcard was sent from Hankow, China, via its Germany PO to Turkey. The postcard, uprated with a German overprint CHINA orange-yellow 25 pfennig stamp and a green 5 pfennig stamp, cancelled with a "HANKAU DEUTSCHE POST" postmark. The postcard also had a Hankau (China) Deutsche Post registered label, Russian train cancellations No.266 (from Port Arthur to Harbin) and No.262 (from Port Arthur to Harbin), Russian transit marks, and Constantinople (Turkey) postmark. The merit of the card is to the travel through the Northwest Siberian Railway and passed through the Russian Train PO -- Middle East Railway, which was officially opened on 14 July 1903. According to the Postal Telegraphic Note No. 88, starting from 1 Oct, the land route of the Siberian Railway was officially available for travels between Europe and the Far East. The first type of Train PO cancellation was a single circular shape, with the train number, date, and cross-shaped date. A very rare TPO usage and early example of Middle East Railway for train mail delivery, and possibly the first registered postcard through Hankau Germany Post Office.

1903年10月20日掛號明信片從漢口經德國客郵局以掛號寄出到土耳其。明信片上貼德國 ovpt. "For Use in Sinkiang Province" stationery double-card, from Xingxingxia to Tihwa Sinkiang (Ürümqi), uprated with two 1-cent junk stamps ovpt. "For Use in Xinjiang Province". Front side of the card bears 3 Xingxingxia Chinese character waist-frame c.d.s. (7th day, the 8th month of 18th year).

There is a red inspection mark on the postal card, and the Xingxingxia postmark is clear. The postal card is well-preserved and rare. This item is recorded on page 96 of "Xinjiang Postal and Post Road History". Xingxingxia is located in the eastern part of Sinkiang, near the border with Kansu. It is a strategically important location as it is a key route for entering Sinkiang from the Hexi Corridor. It has long been known as the first vital gateway town in eastern Sinkiang. During 1920s, various warlords stationed substantial military forces in the area, leading to strict communication and inspection regulations. All correspondences, regardless of its nature, had to be examined and stamped by inspectors. In this stationery card case, the sender, "Shun Fa Foreign Company" was a commercial entity run by Germans. While it appeared to be engaged in trade, it was actually involved in collecting intelligence and information gathering. This gave it significant influence in the governance of Sinkiang during that period.

1929年8月7日第二版帆船1分加蓋「限新省發寄」郵資雙片之回片，從新疆猩猩破寄迪化，加貼帆船1分加蓋「限新省發寄」郵票2枚，片正面共銷3個新疆猩猩破漢字腰框戳（十八年八月七日），郵資片上蓋有紅色檢查戳記，猩猩破戳印清晰及郵資片保存完好，珍罕。著錄：《新疆郵郵驛史》第96頁原件猩猩破位於新疆東部與甘肅交接，由河西走廊入新疆必經之路，地勢險要，素有新疆東第一咽喉重鎮之稱，歷印軍閥在此屯守重兵，通訊檢查極為嚴格，規定無論任何信件往來均需特定檢查員檢核及列印記，此信者「順發洋行」乃德國人經營的商業機構，據考查，它表面上從事貿易活動，實際上是進行收集情報等碟報工作機構，具足影響當時新疆治理。 Start Price HK$30,000

7024 16 May 1916, a good tax mail in Sinkiang applied on a ROC junk overprint stationery card. 16 May 1916, a ROC 1-cent junk stationery postal card overprint "For Use in Xinjiang Province" was sent from Tihwa (Ürümqi) to Shanghai and then further forwarded to Sian. On the back of the postal card, there is a Shanghai arrival postmark, and it was subsequently forwarded to Sian. On the front side of the postal card, there is a bold black "T" mark with two strokes encircling it, and it also bears a postal officer mark of "緣". On the back, there are Chinese-English bilingual circular date stamps from both Shanghai and Sian.

- 7027 2 Sep 1931, an important historical archive to witness the “918 Incident” through this ROC overprint stationery card. 2 Sep 1931 a ROC seventh edition of 1-cent junk overprinted “For Use in Jilin-Heilongjiang” stationery card, uprated with one 1-cent junk ovpt., 4-cent junk ovpt., and a 10-cent junk ovpt., cancelled by 4 Harbin English-Chinese triple-grid datestamp. Additionally, it bears the company seal of “SIMPSONS AGENTOTES P.O. Box 276 / HARBIN - MANCHURIA”. This postal card was handwritten on 2 Sept and placed in a mailbox. The postal card is well-preserved. Due to the outbreak of the 18 Sept 1931 Mukden Incident (also known as the “918 Incident”), postal delivery was suspended until approximately one month later. This item serves as a rare historical witness to the early days of the North Eastern Resistance during the beginning of the Sino-Japanese War following the imperative Mukden Incident. 1931年9月2日第七版帆船郵資片，加貼帆船1分加蓋「限吉黑貼用」票1枚、帆船4分加蓋「限吉黑貼用」票1枚、帆船10分加蓋「限吉黑貼用」票1枚，銷4個哈爾濱英漢三格日戳，另蓋有「SIMPSONS AGENTOTES P.O. Box 276 / HARBIN - MANCHURIA」公司印章，郵資片保存完好。此郵資片手寫於9月2日並放入信筒，因1931年9月18日九一八事變爆發，故郵局停止運作至約一個月後才銷戳寄出，此片為抗戰東北九一八事變淪陷初歷史見證，難得。

- 7029 15 Oct 1904, a truly gem of hand-writing datestamp used in Tungchow, Shensi for international mail with a plenty of characters shown on the stationery card. 15 Oct 1904, a C.I.P. 2nd series stationery double-card reply portion, sent from Tungchow, Shensi Province to Sweden in Northern Europe, uprated with three 1-cent coiling dragon stamps, cancelled by a very rare Shensi Tungchow, lunar year Jia-Chen, hand-written lunar c.d.s (hand writing the Day 7th of the 9th month), and further cancelled by various lunar circular datestamps from Henan Shenchow, Hokaifu, and transit c.d.s. from Hankou and Shanghai. During transit, it was noticed that the 1-cent stamp on the postal card was yet to be cancelled and thereby cancelled with a pen stroke and the further by Hankow c.d.s. The postal card was delivered abroad to overseas via the Shanghai French P.O. Atlantic route to Northern Euro. This piece is a real gem of the C.I.P. hand-writing lunar year datestamps.

1904年10月15日清二次雙片之回片，自陝西省同州寄北歐瑞典，加貼蟠龍1分3枚，銷非常罕見之陝西同州甲辰手填干支日戳（手填九月七日數字），再注銷河南陝州、河南河南府等干支圓戳、漢口及上海中轉，中轉期間見郵資片上1分未銷同州戳而以筆劃銷該印，到達漢口時特以漢口中英文圓戳補銷該郵資印。到上海轉入法國客郵局出走海路經大西洋海線到北歐。郵路清晰，此片為絕不可多得的清代干支手填日戳精品。另註陝西同州地方郵局設立於1904年8月，此郵資片為陝西同州郵局首3個月實際用例，集多個難度極高的清代郵政郵資片及戳記於一身，有重要收藏價值。 Start Price HK$20,000

7031 Jan 1904, a C.I.P. 2nd series stationery double-card forwarding portion, sent from Kiangnan to Kyoto, Japan, uprated with a half-cent coiling dragon stamp, cancelled by the extremely rare "大清郵政分局 / KIANGNAN ARSENAL / 江南製造局" double-circle date stamp. On the back, there was a Shanghai bilingual bisected c.d.s. (Day 7th of the first month, the year Shen), with the character "Shen" used to represent the year, Kyoto arrival c.d.s. The card is partially trimmed. Kiangnan Arsenal was one of the two shipbuilding arsenals in Qing Dynasty, China, located at the Southern part of Shanghai. The other arsenal is Foochow Arsenal in Fukien Province. These two have evolved unique type of bilingual double circle postal cancellation with Chinese inscription 「大清郵政分局」 and 「江南製造局」, both between concentric circles and English inscription KIANGNAN ARSENAL inside the inner circle. This Kiangnan Arsenal special dater is entirely different from the prevailing "CUSTOMS" or "DOLLAR CHOP" inscriptions. Less than a handful of this scarce dater has been recorded and even rarer when appeared in a C.I.P. stationery card for international mail.

1904年1月份清二次片的雙片之前片，從江南寄去日本國京都市，加貼蟠龍半分1枚，此1分半為正確寄日本的郵資。銷極罕之「大清郵政分局 / KIANGNAN ARSENAL / 江南製造局」雙圈戳，背面蓋上海漢英半切日戳（申年1月7日）年分以「申」作記、日本京都丸一到達印。這張清二次片少部分被修剪了。江南製造局是清朝時期的兩個造船廠之一，另一個造船廠是福建省的福州船政局。這兩個造船廠發展出了獨特的雙語雙圓戳，中文為「大清郵政分局」和「江南製造局」，都在同心圓之間，英文 KIANGNAN ARSENAL 位於內圓內。這個江南製造局的特殊戳與當時流行的 "CUSTOMS" 或 "DOLLAR CHOP" 戳完全不同，片右邊有小部分被剪掉，雖然如此，此江南製造局雙圈戳用於清片的國際郵件上更是稀少，清片收藏家不容錯失。 Start Price HK$6,000

The date was hand-written with the numerical values of both the month and day. It was further cancelled with a small lunar circular Chengchow datestamp in lunar year format, plus Hankow bilingual bisected c.d.s. and a Shanghai British P.O. Additionally, it bears the postal officer mark of "A.7", and Rotterdam arrival mark, Netherland arrival c.d.s. The cancellation with the hand-writing lunar year datestamp from the Wangho Pehon "i.e. North bank of Yellow River" area is rare. Thea C.I.P. 2nd series stationery double-card reply portion, item is well-preserved.

- 7034 13 Feb 1905, a very fine use of a local special datestamp of "Xincheng Canton P.O. / Imperial P.O." for international mail to the U.S.A., which is very rare. 13 Feb 1905, a C.I.P. 2nd series stationery card sent from the Xincheng District, Canton, to the United States, uprated with one 1-cent and 2-cent coiled dragon stamps, cancelled by two Canton bilingual bisected c.d.s. Next to it is a rare "Xincheng Canton Post Office / IMPERIAL POST OFFICE" special large circular double-ring postmark. It was then transferred to the Shanghai bilingual postmark and then to Yokohama, Japan and received an arrival mark in Brooklyn, United States. The Xincheng Canton P.O. sub-office postal double-ring postmark itself is rare in itself. Due to being a local sub-office, the locals mostly used it for red-band envelopes sent within the Mainland China.
